

LG-N systems wins International Distributor of the Year Award

Koh Samui, Thailand – October 25 2007 – LG-Nortel systems, the exclusive distributor of LG-Nortel communication products and solutions in Australia and the Pacific, was awarded LG-Nortel's most prestigious global award – International Distributor of the Year 2007 at LG-Nortel's Global Partner Conference.

The awards ceremony attended by Mr. Paul House - COO LG-Nortel, Mr JD An – Vice President LG-Nortel, leading LG-Nortel distributors from around the world, Telstra and major channel partners from Australia, were told how LG-Nortel systems continued growth, commitment to the LG-N product portfolio and the success of their relationship with Telstra - Australia's leading carrier through the Telstra Business Systems program were highlights of 2007.

"We are honoured to receive this most prestigious award, which continues our success in such awards over the last 5 years, and further cements our relationship and commitment to LG-Nortel," said Rob Pierce – General Manager LG-Nortel systems.

Also awarded at the Global Partner Conference were Telstra and LG-Nortel systems' top channel partners with various partner awards.

"It is clear you have a very strong and capable team, and I was honored to award your team with this well deserved award," Paul House - COO LG-Nortel said.

LG-Nortel systems are the exclusive distributor in Australia and the Pacific of LG-Nortel communication products and solutions. LG-Nortel Korea is a global leader in communication solutions with revenues in excess of 1 billion dollars.